The principal bedroom is a far cry from the cool grey space it used to be. The leather-and-brass headboard is still here, but Hranowsky redid the walls in wheat-toned grasscloth and brought in diaphanous drapes and intriguing accessories like the mod brass ceiling light. Gifts from a friend, the suzani pillows and slipper chairs inject just enough pattern. Dressers add piles of storage as bedside tables. Chair fabric: Lee Jojo; dressers: Bungalow 5; art by Kate Long Stevenson.
